

We are pleased to announce that Stonemill Partners was involved in orchestrating another successful acquisition. Here is a press release related to the transaction:

<http://www.crainscleveland.com/article/20170522/NEWS/170529967/cleveland-based-k2m-design-buys-indianapolis-firm>

Here are some key takeaways from the release:

“...strategic growth with the acquisition...”

“...onboarding a talented team...”

“...diversify their service offering...”

“...will expand these specializations nationally....”

“...to ensure the legacy and continue the growth...”

“An alignment of culture and goals made this acquisition a great fit for both companies...”

“Their depth of talent and experience is a perfect complement...”

“...in direct alignment to the long-term strategy...”

We will soon be announcing more completed acquisitions. For companies like these, available, visit www.stonemillpartners.com.

To discuss how your business can take advantage of synergies like those noted above, contact us.